Olde Tyme Circus Returns to Mattapoisett

One of the stars of the seventeenth annual tour of Vidbel's Olde Tyme Circus is the talented and lovely Miss Susan Vidbel. Performing on the aerial cloud swing, she combines grace and beauty while presenting this difficult and dangerous routine. Crowned "Queen of the Sarasota Circus Festival," she is one of the highlights of the 2000 tour.

Vidbel's Olde Tyme Circus is returning to Mattapoisett on August 7 and 8 with performances at 5:15 pm and 7:30 pm. The circus is sponsored by the Mattapoisett Lions Club as a major fund-raiser and reduced-price advance tickets are now on sale. The all new Red and White Circus big top will be set up at Mahoney's Field on Route 6 in Mattapoisett.

Other exciting acts performing in the show will be The Ryjkov Duo from Russia with their comedy plate spinning act, Miss Sadie's trained House Cats, Crazy Comedy Clowns, Dusty's Dog and Goat review, Jennifer's Liberty Ponies, Mr. Alex on the Washington Trapeze, a Dancing High School Horse, Precision Juggling routine, and much, much more. All acts will be presented by a circus ringmaster with live music. Call the circus hot line at (508) 758-3731 for more information and tickets.

"The Big Catch"

Local Boys Lure Large Fish

Joseph Penta, 10, and Angelo Paolini, 10, both of Newton and Mattapoisett, caught a 44-inch, 34-pound striped bass in Quicks Hole while on vacation at their summer cottages in Mattapoisett. On July 2 in the early morning hours, Angelo and Joseph, accompanied by Dan Paolini and Carmello Nicolasi, went fishing in Quicks Hole on a motor boat. Joseph Penta was fishing when he felt the pull and yelled for help. Angelo came to his rescue and the two boys reeled in the big fish. Without a net on board, Carmello Nicolosi reached down into the fish's mouth and pulled it on board. The 44-inch catch was gutted, grilled and enjoyed by some of the residents in Mattapoisett's Harbor Beach community.

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

July 31, 2000

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, July 31 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Paul Lambalot. Also present were Selectman Barry Denham, Selectman Ray Andrews, and Executive Secretary Carol Adams.

After unanimously approving the minutes of the July 17 and July 24 meetings — with Selectman Denham abstaining due to his absence — the board unanimously voted to sign and ratify the town's mutual aid agreement with neighboring Fire Departments in Plymouth County as per a request from Fire Chief Ron Scott, and also voted to authorize the Town Meeting appropriation for State Aid to Highways in the amount of $593,822.25 under MGL Chapter 81.

At 7:00 the board opened a formal hearing upon a request from Sanjay Pantel, President of the Neelkanth Corporation, d/b/a Mattapoisett Food and Fuel located at 62 Fairhaven Road (known as the "Circle B" gas station on Route 6) to install and replace underground fuel storage tanks at the site. Mr. Pantel's attorney explained that although the establishment had just recently installed underground tanks before Mr. Pantel purchased the property, his lender required that new tanks be installed to ensure they met all the latest state codes.

"They were permitted for three underground tanks — one 8,000-gallon and two 6,000-gallon gasoline tanks ... and one above-ground 1,000-gallon diesel fuel tank," said Attorney Jim Mulford. "(Fire Chief) Ron Scott expressed to us his concern about the above-ground tank, and with his permission we decided to install three underground tanks — one 12,000-gallon gasoline tank, one 8,000-gallon gasoline tank, and one 6,000-gallon diesel fuel tank."

But abutter John Rosa, who owns the adjacent Cuttyhunk Seafood property, expressed concern over potential soil contamination on his property if any leaks or fuel spills occur. He wanted to know who would be responsible if such an accident occurs.

"We had a licensed site professional (LSP) come down and do a site inspection," agreed Chief Scott. "The way the water flows (at the location), it flows southwest, so it would never flow toward (Cuttyhunk Seafood). The LSP pretty much assured us there would be no problem with contamination."

The board members stressed that even if there were a leak or spill which affected Mr. Rosa's property, Mr. Pantel would be responsible for the necessary clean-up costs.

With that, the board unanimously voted to approve the installation of the three newly-proposed underground storage tanks at the establishment on 62 Fairhaven Road.

The board then unanimously voted to appoint Edward Camara Jr. to the Marine Advisory Committee to fill a vacancy on that board.

The board then sent a letter to Police Chief James Moran relative to the Route 6/Brandt Island Road intersection which is being studied by state highway officials for the possible installation of a traffic light due to motor vehicle accidents at the location. "I hope they'd have a public hearing before they make a decision on that," Chairman Lambalot noted. "Residents may have some input."

Under incoming correspondence, the board received:

- Letter from State Representative William Straus assuring them that the promised contribution rate of 65 percent for the Center and Old Hammondtown Schools projects and the Mattapoisett Boat Ramp project were not vetoed by the Governor. The boat ramp project will commence at the end of hurricane season and the House and Senate also approved a bill that adds another $48,272 to Mattapoisett's local aid or FY2001.

- Invitation from the Buzzards Bay Action Committee (BBAC) to attend a press conference on the "Designation of Buzzards Bay as a 'No Discharge Area'" on August 4 at 11:00 am on the Ernestina at the New Bedford State Pier.

Buzzards Bay (CBB) regarding the environmental significance of sewerizing the beachfront area of Crescent Beach. "I regret that it appears to demonstrate that the Coalition and the Commissioners are very far apart in our view of the environmental significance of extension of sewer into the Mattapoisett beachfront area," Mr. Huntoon wrote. "At this time the Mattapoisett Water and Sewer Commissioners do not foresee that there can be any useful result from further discussions between (the CBB) and the town without direct involvement of Fairhaven."

• The Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) submitted a Letter of Recognition to the Mattapoisett Water Department for receiving a score in the top 20 percent in the 2000 Public Water System (PWS) Awards Program. "We were in the top 20 percent out of 351 cities and towns ... I'd say that's pretty good," Selectman Denham noted.

• Letter from Senator Marc R. Pacheco pledging that he will continue to fight for the FY2001 budget if the Governor vetoes any of the pending projects, including: $510,843 in Chapter 70 money for Mattapoisett Public Schools; $1,707,801 in Chapter 70 money for Old Rochester Regional High School; and $2,137,854 in Chapter 70 money for Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School.

such as weddings. This year she has received 32 such requests and she felt the board may want to consider charging a "user fee" to support the maintenance and repair of these public facilities. "Many people ask how much we charge when they call to use (them)," Ms. Adams said. "I think people have to be willing to pay for use of these facilities."

Selectman Denham noted that repair work needs to be done on the gazebo at Shipyard Park and estimates suggest it could cost anywhere between $12,000 and $15,000. "If we charge $100 a wedding, we'll have $3,200 a year to put towards maintenance and repair," he said.

The board also discussed the use of these public places for functions such as "wedding receptions" and the like and agreed that the use should be limited to "wedding ceremonies" only. With that, the board unanimously voted to establish a policy limiting the use of Shipyard Park, the gazebo, and Ned's Point for "wedding ceremonies" and establishing a $100 fee per use.

The board then discussed the process by which they will search for a new Police Chief to replace James Moran who will retire at the end of the year. Chairman Lambalot noted the board met and agreed to establish a five-member search committee to review the applicants in "Executive Session" and recommend the top five candidates to the Board of Selectmen for consideration. The Selectmen will then narrow that field down to the top three who will be interviewed in "open session" and they will make their selection from that final trio.

The five-member Mattapoisett Police Chief Search Committee will be comprised of: R. Scott Armbruster, who formerly served Mattapoisett as Building Inspector; Stephen J. Lombard, the current Dennis Town Administrator and former Executive Secretary for Mattapoisett; Judith M. Mooney, the current Mattapoisett Town Accountant; Randall E. Smith, a retired Mattapoisett businessman; and Elizabeth A. Quinn, the Superintendent of Schools.

"I think it's a great mix of people who will bring certain assets to the committee," Selectman Andrews said.

Chairman Lambalot noted the position will be officially advertised on September 1, with applications due September 22. The Search Committee will begin reviewing the applicants after that date and the plan is to appoint a replacement for Chief Moran by January 1, 2001.

Registry Bill Moves Forward

State Representative William Straus (D-Mattapoisett) announced today that the Legislature has given preliminary approval to a bill that forces the Registry of Motor Vehicles to protect the privacy and personal information of Massachusetts residents. The action occurred in a House session on July 26.

The bill includes an amendment offered by Representative Straus that prohibits the Registry from using social security numbers for identification purposes on licenses. The bill requires the Registry to issue a separate license number for all licenses and renewals.

"Currently, licensees are able to choose between their social security numbers and registry-issued numbers," Representative Straus said. "This bill would prohibit the use of social security numbers for identification purposes, further protecting individuals from fraudulent abuse of their personal information. Theft identity cases commonly occur when criminals obtain someone's social security number. I have always opposed allowing the state to use information as a general

Other highlights of the bill include limiting disclosure of personal information — such as home addresses, digital images, telephone numbers and medical information, to cases of governmental functions, protecting driver safety, research activities, and insurance claims.

"This legislation creates strict guidelines for the use of personal information obtained by the Registry," said Representative Straus. "Protecting an individual's privacy is helping to redefine the use of public record."

The bill must still receive another vote of the Full House before proceeding to the Senate for its review.

Healthy Smiles...One Step At A Time

Staying in shape means exercising regularly. The more often you work your body the less likely you are to have a problem.

Your teeth need the same attention. Regular visits to your dentist can keep your teeth clean and healthy. Most major problems can be prevented if detected early. Preventive dentistry is both effective and cost-efficient over the long term. By missing routine checkups you put yourself at risk for irreversible gum disease or tooth loss. We can get you started on the right path for a lifetime of good dental health.

North Fairhaven Fun Fair

There is truly something fun for everyone in the family at the North Fairhaven Improvement Association's (NFIA) annual Fun Fair, Car Show and Cow Chip Contest to be held on Sunday, August 13 from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm in Livesey Park on Glenhaven Avenue in Fairhaven. The rain date for the event will be August 20 and admission is FREE.

This year's fair will feature hundreds of antique and classic autos, motorcycles, entertainment, and public safety demonstrations. Food and beverages will be available all day.

The "Made in the Shade Car Show," which is growing in popularity and size each year, will feature antique and classic vehicles on display for judging, with trophies being awarded in 31 different categories. The car show is set up in the tree-shaded northeast corner of the park. In addition, a motorcycle show will feature bikes competing in 13 categories.

For the children, there will be game booths, such as flying saucer throw, bean bag throw, "tic-tac-toe," and other games for all levels of skill. A dunk tank, moon walk, and a series of old-fashioned field events such as tug-o-war, sack races, and "wheelbarrow" races will also be featured.

Entertainment and demonstrations will take place throughout the day. Public safety equipment, including fire trucks, police and emergency management vehicles, and displays by the region's safety and law enforcement officials will occupy a section of the park as well.

The Cow Chip Contest is a fund-raising event in

A total of $1,000 in prize money will be awarded to the owners of the real estate upon which the cow chips fall. Cow chip contest tickets cost $5 for one square yard of the cow field and are available for sale now from the NFIA. Remaining tickets will be sold on the day of the contest.

The Family Fun Fair benefits the North Fairhaven Improvement Association which undertakes projects to enhance the community, such as raising funds for the Livesey Skate Park, planting flower beds at Benoit Square, sponsoring a walking tour of North Fairhaven and holding an annual Easter Egg Hunt, Halloween Parade, and a Christmas sing-along at Benoit Square. NFIA also acts as curator to the Old Stone Schoolhouse, an 1828 school on North Street that's open to the public on Wednesday and Friday afternoons during August. Besides a planned expansion of the popular skate board park, the association is now restoring the old North Fairhaven Fire Station for use as its meeting place.

SouthCoast Music Foundation

The SouthCoast Music Foundation (SCM) is proud to announce that it has received a grant from the office of Plymouth County District Attorney Michael Sullivan. SCM was founded in 1999 in Mattapoisett and is dedicated to promoting the development of this area's young musicians. Since its inception, the group has been providing free rehearsal space and a network for young musicians.

The grant has been used to purchase sound equipment, allowing the organization to expand its music activities. The Mattapoisett Congregational Church will continue to host occasional SouthCoast Music jam sessions. In addition, the group will continue to work with the Mattapoisett Police in fund-raising efforts to build a skate-park.

A concerted effort is being made to find a more permanent location for the group, perhaps as part of a Teen Center. Young musicians in need of rehearsal space and/or other players are invited to call 758-9464 or to

Project GROW Applications

A recent mailing, based on town census information, was sent to all families with children age-eligible for Project GROW. The mailing contained a brochure and application materials for the pre-school program. If you did not receive a mailing, have an age-eligible child, and are interested in this program, you may pick up an application at the Office of the Superintendent of Schools located at Old Rochester Regional High School, 135 Marion Road, in Mattapoisett. Priority will be given to applications received by 12:00 noon on Friday, August 14.

Project GROW, the local public school early childhood program, is seeking students for the upcoming school year. Anticipated state grants, combined with local funds, support the operation of the program. Project GROW classrooms are located at the Center School in Mattapoisett, Memorial School in Rochester, and Sippican School in Marion. All classes run for four hours a day. Classes are held Tuesday through Friday. The program follows the public school calendar and is tuition-free. Parents are responsible for providing transportation to and from school each day. Efforts are made to assist parents in forming carpools.

Enrollment is open to all children residing in

Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

TRAINING YOUR PUPPY

My puppy is 3 months old and still poops in the house. What can I do?

Use a crate. Puppies come to think of a crate as their own room, not a prison. The puppy goes into the crate last thing at night after being walked and is taken outside the first thing in the morning. After each meal the pup goes outside to the same spot with adult supervision and receives praise after elimination. The pup should stay in his crate during the day when he is not interacting with family members. He should go outside every 30-60 minutes when he is free in the house. Most dogs are housebroken by 6 months.

When can I start teaching him tricks?

Start immediately! Have short training sessions of 1-2 minutes, 10-30 times daily. Start with "come, sit, stay" and then add other tricks as you desire. Heel is important with a large breed pup. If the dog walks ahead of you on a leash, turn around and start walking in the opposite direction. Praise the pup constantly when he/she is walking without pulling.

Cultural Council, a local agency supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

Widely known for their high-spirited programs, Yankee Notions performs traditional and contemporary music of New England. Whether it's an old song in praise of the farmer's life, a rollicking sea chantey, tandem telling of a tall tale, toe-tapping dance tunes, or a recent song about the character and characters of New England, Yankee Notions promises to "please the ear, inform the mind, and warm the heart."

The folk duo consists of Jim Douglas on vocals, guitar and concertina; and Jim Van Egmond on vocals, hammered dulcimer, and limberjack (a small wooden puppet that taps out a rhythm on a paddleboard). Each is accomplished in his own right: Douglas has published a couple of song collections and made a number of recordings of songs and stories, one of which won the American Library Association's Prestigious Notable Award; while Van Egmond has recorded three albums as a member of the contra dance band "Swallowtail" and appeared on National Public Radio's "A Prairie Home Companion." Performing together for over ten years, the two have entertained audiences of all ages throughout New England, including appearances at Old Sturbridge Village, Mystic Seaport, the Mayflower II in Plymouth, and The Museum of Out National Heritage.

Club has agreed to serve to bring about a giant parade similar to the parades sponsored by the Lions Club in 1979 and 1986.

Why not start today to enter a float or other exhibition in this parade and help make it a parade to be remembered? It is best to have a parade theme, so a suggestion of "Progress from 1900 to 2000" has been made. Picture for a moment a float with a youngster sitting at a desk with a large encyclopedia with paper and pencil doing research in the early 1900s and then another youngster sitting at a computer doing his or her research.

There are other unlimited ideas for a float. Examples include bathing suits for women in early 1900 and bikini clad suits of the 2000s, or two kids communicating with two tin cans and a piece of kite string and today two kids communicating with cell phones, or a parade of antique cars from 1900 up to this year's model. We are sure you can come up with more splendid ideas. Start today, because it takes time to put together an award-winning float. In addition to ribbons in

MOVIE REVIEW

Family Guy

BY ROB GONSALVES
<http://robsreviews.cjb.net>

Nutty Professor II: The Klumps.
Starring Eddie Murphy and Janet Jackson. Directed by Peter Segal. Running time: 105 minutes. MPAA rating: PG-13. At Cinema 12 at the North Dartmouth Mall and Flagship Cinemas in New Bedford.

In 1996's The Nutty Professor, itself a remake of Jerry Lewis' split-personality classic, Eddie Murphy seemed to exorcise his old, brash persona (in the form of the vicious Buddy Love) and embrace a new, egoless approach to comedy. Covered in latex, he seemed more present, more himself, than he had in years. It felt like more than a comeback; it felt as though Murphy had torched the first half of his career and risen from the ashes, fake flap and all. Murphy's choices since then (Dr. Dolittle, Holy Man, Bowfinger) have been hit or miss, but at least he hasn't regressed to the aggressive shtick that worked in the '80s and then, quite abruptly, stopped working.

The main thing wrong with Nutty Professor II: The Klumps, which otherwise isn't a bad movie, is that Buddy Love is back. The portly professor Sherman Klump, it seems, still hasn't eradicated all traces of Buddy — his lust, his nastiness — from his consciousness; indeed, we see that Buddy is actually part of Sherman's DNA. Sherman is about to marry a lovely colleague (Janet Jackson), and he wants Buddy out of his system. Inevitably, the process of isolating and removing the "Buddy gene" goes awry, and Buddy surfaces as a separate, physical entity who torments Sherman and plots to steal Sherman's newly developed youth serum. Buddy keeps popping up, getting more tiresome each time he brays in our faces. We agree with Sherman: Buddy is an irritant in Sherman's life and in the movie, too.

Perhaps the reason Murphy plays Sherman so sensitively and well, especially in the scenes in both movies when Sherman is down on himself, is that Murphy is well-acquainted with self-hatred. After all, Buddy, who looks pretty much like Eddie Murphy, is the most obnoxious person in the film. Disappearing inside Rick Baker's makeup to play not only Sherman but (almost) his entire family, Murphy can do characters; he can act. (Recall, too, how he changed his appearance for Bowfinger.) I think he knows that "Eddie Murphy" is limited to a certain type of suave role. In disguise, he can cut loose and, within this farcical context, dabble in serious acting.

Consider the scenes with the Klump family gathered around the table or the TV. Very quickly, you stop looking for the seams that enable Eddie Murphy as Papa Klump to interact with Eddie Murphy as Mama Klump. Each performance is so thoroughly distinct, each character so subtly drawn, that it's not hard at all to suspend disbelief and imagine you're watching a real family played by a variety of actors. This isn't just make-up gimmickry; Murphy uses Rick Baker's immense talents as a tool to burrow into character, to become someone else, on the inside as well as the outside. When, as Sherman, he acts opposite Janet Jackson, he displays a gentle, bashful ardor he wouldn't be able to pull off as "Eddie Murphy."

The movie itself is pretty erass. We spend a little too much time watching the randy Granny Klump haplessly trying to seduce the revolted Buddy (the moment doesn't have the comeuppance zing that it should; the audience retches along with Buddy). There are the usual scatalogical jokes — a few of which, I have to admit, made me laugh (there's a quick, wicked scene that trashes 2001, Star Wars, and Armageddon all at once) — and a showstopper featuring a giant hamster whose amorous attentions focus on the unfortunate Larry Miller.

But any movie in which Eddie Murphy can play reconciliation scenes not only with Janet Jackson but with himself (Papa and Mama have a falling-out over Papa's use of the youth serum), and make each one feel believable, isn't to be dismissed lightly. When he plays the Klumps in full force, it's as if Murphy were eagerly showing us the comic genius and acting range that went untapped for years, like a one-note musician who suddenly stumbled upon the freedom to try a variety of styles, and turned out to play them all like a virtuoso. If this has to happen in a crude comedy aimed mainly at adolescents, that's a compromise I'm willing to accept.

UNPROFITABLE IMPROVEMENTS

Once you own your home, and it's in basically good condition, consider making improvements to it which will add profit to its value. This is known as building-in inflation to your home's market value.

For example, if you add a new bedroom to your home for $10,000 and it will increase the home's value by $20,000, you've made a profitable improvement. However, if your $10,000 cost adds only $10,000 of value or less, you've made an unprofitable improvement.

The list of profitable improvements, meaning they add more market value than they cost, include (1) kitchen renovation, (2) bathroom renovation, (3) room additions, (4) landscaping, (5) new floors and carpets, and (the most profitable improvement of all) (6) new paint.

Unprofitable improvements which usually add no market value to a home include (1) new roof, (2) new wiring, (3) new plumbing, and (4) converting a garage to a family room. Surprisingly, swimming pools and hot tubs usually don't add more to the home's market value than their cost.

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Aries (March 21-April 19). Get your house into shape so you can entertain a special person. Finish old business even if you don't feel like it.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). You're going to learn quickly. Follow orders. Something you've tried to figure out will finally make sense.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). You might finally get the money you've been expecting from far away. Be gentle and kind and you could make a tidy profit.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). The sun's in your sign, but it will go into Leo soon. Don't procrastinate! Something you've struggled with finally gets easier, so don't take no for an answer, either.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). The sun's going into your sign — finally! Have your partner help you finish old business. Pay off a big debt, and you'll feel a lot better.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). A misunderstanding with a friend should clear up. It might even start to look funny. Get help with a technical breakdown to save yourself time and trouble.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Go along with what an older person wants. Take good care of others. You might want to run off and play, and maybe you can.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Something interesting is happening at your house. Get rid of an item you don't need; it'll make a great gift for a friend.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21).
Study ways to make money. Stay home and get rid of stuff you don't need. You could make a profit at that, too.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19).
Other people are still important in your life, especially when it comes to making or saving money. Pour money into a partnership.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). You're strong and courageous. Provide your best service with everything you do. The money starts coming in — finally.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). Pay bills and take care of technical matters. Start new projects. Don't hesitate. Find the money you need.

If You're Having a Birthday
This Week: You could earn a lot, but don't spend it as fast as you get it. Stash some away for the future.
